WRECKS $18,000 MOTORCAR
Chauffeur for Mrs. W. Plunkett Stewart Gets Month in Jail
An $18,000 automobile, owned by Mrs. W. Plunkett Stewart, of Gray's lane, Haverford, was wrecked when it "flew" over a ditch near Mr. Holly, N. J. The chauffeur, saying he was Jack Thomas, of Reynoldsford, later admitted being intoxicated and said he was driving recklessly. Recorder Slack, at Mt. Holly, sent Thomas to jail for thirty days.
Thomas said he was on his way to New York to meet Mrs. Stewart and was late because he had been drinking. He was captured by Chief Broadlaw, of Moorestown, who gave chase on a motorcycle, after Thomas had passed through the town at an admitted fifty-mile-an-hour clip.
The capture was effected only after Thomas had failed to make a sharp turn and smashed the car in a eye field, after jumping a deep ditch.

GIBBONS WON'T PROSECUTE
Lawyer Withdraws Warrants for Brother and Others
Warrants which Henry J. Gibbons, lawyer and former Assistant City Solicitor, had issued for the arrest of Dr. Herbert Adams Gibbons, his brother; Francis Fisher Kane, Director Cortelyou, Superintendent Mills and others have been withdrawn.
This action was taken today by Magistrate Carney, following the receipt of a letter from Mr. Gibbons, in which he said that he had determined not to prosecute those he blamed for having him arrested and placed in the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, from which institution he was released on a writ of habeas corpus.

BOY STARTS TRIP TO COAST ON BIKE
New York Youngster Using Same Kind of Machine Contest Winners Get

THE CONDITIONS ARE EASY

From New York to San Francisco on a Black Beauty bicycle—this is the trip which has been undertaken by Robert Brown, a New York City high school boy.
He started Monday and expects to reach his destination about the middle of August.
The wheel he is using for the long journey is precisely the same as those which the "Public Ledger" is giving free to 5000 boys and girls.
Brown made his first stop in this city yesterday morning, and left in the afternoon for Pittsburgh. He is a sturdy youth of high ambitions and will enter Leland Stanford University to take up law.
Brown started his journey from Fifth avenue and Seventy-seventh street, and was given a rousing send-off by students of the Stuyvesant High School, from which he graduated.
"I hope to average from twelve to thirteen miles an hour," said Brown, "and keep up this pace without getting tired."
"As my trip to the Coast will be made by a circuitous route I will actually cover about 4000 miles."
"The wheel is fine, and I feel sure it will stand up well under the long journey."
Brown has been riding for some time, and is a member of the Stuyvesant Cycle Club, of New York.
Five thousand of these Black Beauty bicycles will be given to boys and girls who turn in thirty-five subscriptions to the "Morning Evening or Sunday Public Ledger" between June 1 and September 15. These subscriptions may be taken from residents of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland.

WHAT A BOY AND A BIKE CAN DO

Robert Brown, a New York schoolboy, is pedaling his way from Manhattan to San Francisco on a Black Beauty bicycle, the same kind to be given away in the Public Ledger bicycle contest. Young Brown was in Philadelphia yesterday for a short time and then wheeled zany away toward the Pacific coast

Thieves Get Liquors
Household goods, eight gallons of wine and a bottle of Scotch whisky, which disappeared from the home of Mr. Margaret Mayer, 4406 North Broad street, during the last three months, are believed by Mrs. Mayer to have been stolen by three negroes, who were arrested last night.
They are Percy Cammer, his wife, Mary, and his brother Robert, all of Tasker street near Fifteenth. Percy and his wife were servants of Mrs. Mayer. Percy of the Germantown avenue and Leaning street station arrested them when they were found attempting to force a cellar window. At a hearing this morning before Magistrate Price they admitted taking the wine, but denied knowledge of the other thefts. Each was held in $500 bail for a further hearing.

1847 ROGERS BROS. SILVER PLATE

Harmony—the prevailing note in correct Table Service

WHERE it was once customary to choose patterns as fancy dictated, it is now possible and desirable to choose "1847 Rogers Bros." in which the spoons, knives and forks can be matched by tea and coffee sets, meat and vegetable dishes, etc., in the same pattern. Even a modest half dozen tea spoons can start the Table Service, other pieces to be added when convenient.

This distinctive feature makes "1847 Rogers Bros." the ideal gift. Always acceptable are such useful pieces in beautiful gift-boxes as orange or grape fruit spoons, $5.50 for six; cold meat fork, at $2.25; salad forks, $8.00 for a half dozen.

Leading dealers display a wide variety of "1847 Rogers Bros." patterns or can order them for you. An unqualified guarantee goes with every piece.
